

PRESS RELEASE – FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Grand Opening Of Grampa's Attic

Ingersoll, ON – October 10th, 2005 – Step back in time at Grampa's Attic. Ingersoll Mayor, Paul Holbrough, will join the festivities at the Grand Opening of Ingersoll's new, unique retail store, Grampa's Attic, located at 149 Thames Street, at 1:00 p.m. on Saturday, October 29, 2005.

Tom and Carla Smith wanted to offer their customers the opportunity to reflect back to a simpler, less complicated period in time. The atmosphere of the store and the broad range of products do just that. Already customers are expressing their joy and pleasant experience within the store commenting, "I remember those when I was a kid." and "I haven't seen those in years." At Grampa's Attic, you never know what you'll find when you look inside. As the selection of unique and wonderful items grows, the fascination increases. And, of course, Grampa usually has a story to tell about each and every one.

There has always been a universal fascination with flying and sailing. Many of the store's items reveal a compelling story behind some of the world's most famous ships and aircraft. Customers take home a piece of the history and excitement with each item of unique memorabilia. Yes, Grampa's Attic appeals to the child in all of us, young and old alike. Stop by now to relive one or two of those childhood memories again.

During the GRAND OPENING EVENT, Grampa's Attic is offering MONEY SAVING SPECIALS. Starting October 29th and throughout the month of November, discounts of up to 25% will be offered on select items such as unique balance toys, aviation and sailing ships, old world globes, glass writing instruments and old-fashioned nostalgic candy. There is something for everyone.

Grampa's Attic's regular hours of operation will be Monday through Thursday, 9:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m., Friday, 9:00 a.m. to 9:00 p.m., Saturday, 9 a.m. to 5:00 p.m., and closed on Sunday.
